

DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES PROGRAM CERTIFIED SUPPORT BROKERS

- 1) Persons who begin Self-Directing Services with Employer Authority after January 1, 2012 who manage their own employees are encouraged to obtain the services of a Support Broker for the first year of Self-Direction.
- 2) To be certified and paid as a Support Broker, an individual must meet the certification standards established by the Developmental Disabilities Program by submitting an application to the DDP, completion of required training and successful completion of the Support Broker Examination.
- 3) Persons excluded from being paid as a Support Broker include parents, spouses, or legal guardians of the participant, persons who work for agencies providing other DDP-Funded supports to the participant, and persons who function as the conservator, payee or who have any other fiduciary responsibilities for the participant.
- 4) State-funded Case Management is considered to meet the definition of an agency providing other DDP state funded services if the agency in which the Case Manager is employed provides services to the person served in the same Developmental Disabilities Region.
