Child Care Facility Emergency / Disaster Drill Report

ARM 37.95.124 CHILD CARE FACILITIES: EMERGENCY DISASTER AND ACTION PLANS

- (1) All child care facilities must have a written emergency disaster plan. The plan for each structure used for child care must be developed in such a way that the plan can be followed in the event of a natural or human-caused disaster, such as flood, fire, tornado, or responding to an intruder.
- (2) Emergency disaster plans must include:
  - (a) an emergency supply of blankets, water, food, and supplies;
  - (b) plans for evacuation, including identification of at least one off-site gathering point;
  - (c) plans for evacuation of nonmobile children and children with special health care needs;
  - (d) contingencies that address:
    - (i) children's individual needs; and
    - (ii) staff responsibilities;
- (e) plans for reunification of children with their parents;
- (f) plans for shelter in place and lock down;
- (g) plans for continuity of operation.

Please write your plan to evacuate children from your facility in case of fire or other disaster. Use the Child Care Emergency Disaster Action Plan Guide to help develop your plans.

- 1. What will the person discovering the fire or emergency do?
- 2. How will you sound the alarm?
- 3. What documentation and supplies will you bring during an evacuation?
- 4. What routes will you use to exit children?
- 5. How will you evacuate infants, toddlers, and children with special health needs?
- 6. Where will you relocate to? Do you have short term and long-term relocation sites?
- 7. What will you do before the fire department or other emergency responder team arrives?
- 8. How will you ensure all persons are evacuated and accounted for?
- 9. How will you notify parents? How will you reunite children with their parents?

Please write your plan in case of lock-down or shelter in place at your facility.

- 1. What will the person discovering the emergency do?
- 2. Where are the safe places in the building in case of severe weather? In case of intruder?
- 3. Where will the emergency supplies be stored? What supplies?
- 4. What supplies will you have for infants, toddlers, and children with special health needs?
- 5. What will you do before the fire department or other emergency responder team arrives?
- 6. How will you notify parents? How will you reunite children with their parents?

By August 31, 2018: Emergency Action Plans must be available for review during inspections. Emergency supply kits must be on-site and available for licensing inspection.

I, (Applicant Name)am aware that DPHHS/QAD/CCL, has requested confidential information, in accordance with 41-3-205(3) (o), MCA as part of a review of my personal background in connection with my status as a current or prospective employee of or volunteer for that entity.
I am aware that Child and Family Services Division (CFSD) and Department of Justice records may contain information that could adversely affect my employment or volunteer status/approval as outlined in ARM 37.95.161 and ARM 37.95.176. These records will relate to criminal history records, motor vehicle records as well as any report(s) of child abuse or neglect in Montana that indicates a risk to children. Records that indicate a risk to children are those that show a substantiation of child abuse/neglect on the person; and/or a history that shows that the person has had their caregiver rights to a child terminated. As a household member, I understand that I am also subject to the above requirements.
I am also aware that although the entities or individuals requesting and receiving confidential CFSD

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Social Security Account Number (SSAN). Your SSAN is needed to keep records accurate because other people may have the same name and birth date. Pursuant to the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (5 USC 552a), the requesting agency is responsible for informing you whether disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by what statutory or other authority your SSAN is solicited, and what uses will be made of it. Executive Order 9397 also asks Federal agencies to use this number to help identify individuals in agency records.

Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.

Additional Information: The requesting agency and/or the agency conducting the application-investigation will provide you additional information pertinent to the specific circumstances of this application, which may include identification of other authorities, purposes, uses, and consequences of not providing requested information. In addition, any such agency in the Federal Executive Branch has also published notice in the Federal Register describing any systems(s) of records in which that agency may also maintain your records, including the authorities, purposes, and routine uses for the system(s).

Applicant Rights and Consent to Fingerprint

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below.

- You must be provided written notification¹ by _DPHHS/ECFSD/ECSB/CCL_ that your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI.
- You must be provided, and acknowledge receipt of, an adequate Privacy Act Statement when you submit your fingerprints and associated personal information. This Privacy Act Statement should explain the authority for collecting your information and how your information will be used, retained, and shared.
- If you have a criminal history record, the officials deciding of your suitability for employment, license, or other benefit must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.
- The officials must advise you that the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or updating of your criminal history record are set forth at Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record.<sup>2</sup>

The Early Childhood Services Bureau's acquisition, retention, and sharing of information related to your application is generally authorized under the Child Care and Development Block Grant Act, 42 U.S.C 9858f. The purpose for requesting this information is to conduct a criminal background check pertaining to your fitness to serve as a child care staff member, prospective child care staff member, or volunteer. The information you provide will be used to check federal and state databases to determine your eligibility to be a child care staff member, prospective child care staff member, or volunteer. By providing your information, you are providing consent for Early Childhood Services Bureau to use this information to conduct such a criminal background check. Part of the criminal background check includes comparing your information to information in the Federal Bureau of Investigation's National Crime Information Center (NCIC) National Sex Offender Registry (NSOR). Your state is required to have a process through which you can appeal the results of a criminal background/NCIC NSOR check. Please contact the Early Childhood Services Bureau for more information.

You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.<sup>3</sup>

If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at http://www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/background-checks.

If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI at the same address as provided above. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency.

If a change, correction, or update needs to be made to a Montana criminal history record, or if you need additional information or assistance, please contact Montana Criminal Records and Identification Services at DOJCRISS@mt.gov or 406-444-3625.

Your signature below acknowledges this agency has informed you of your privacy rights for fingerprint-basedbackground check requests used by the agency.

Out Of State Criminal History Background Checks

ARM 37.95.161 CHILD CARE FACILITIES: CRIMINAL FINGERPRINT AND BACKGROUND CHECKS REQUIREMENTS: (1) A fingerprint background check by the Montana Department of Justice and Federal Bureau of Investigation is required prior to working in a child care facility and every five years thereafter.

* All staff of any age and household members 18 years and older are required to complete FBI checks every 5 years.

Please be aware that the fingerprint process could take up to 6 weeks.

To avoid processing delays, please follow the steps below:

- 1. Have your fingerprints rolled at your local Child Care Resource and Referral (R&R) office or local Law Enforcement agency.
- 2. Ensure your original fingerprint card is completely filled out (see attached fingerprint card example)
- 3. Make a check or money order payable to Montana Criminal Records in the amount of $30.
- 4. Mail FBI fingerprint card with your paperwork to the Child Care Licensing office in Helena:

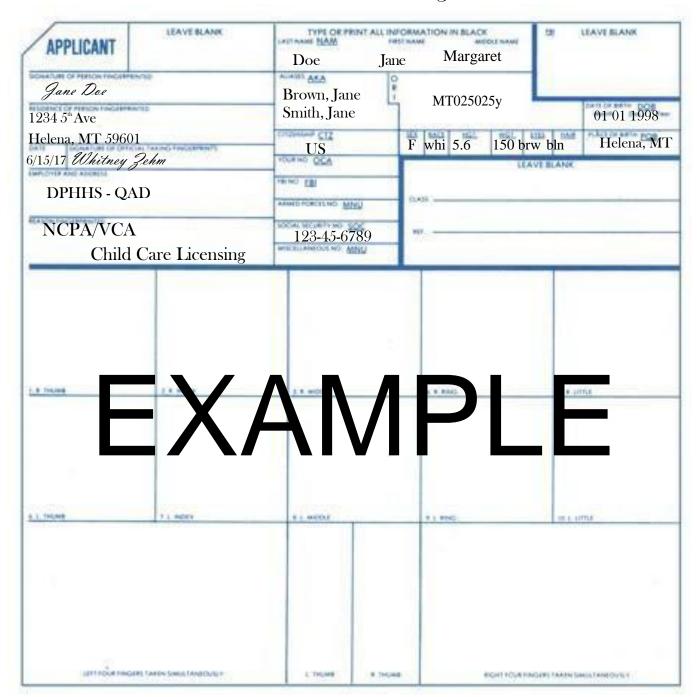

DPHHS/ECSB/CCL PO BOX 4210 HELENA. MT 59620-4210

FAX: 406-444-2750 EMAIL: childcarelicensing@mt.gov

Please note, if the card and paperwork was sent to DOJ it will be shredded.

Howto Fill Out Fingerprint Cards

ChildCareLicensing

*Each fingerprint card should be examined to ascertain all information that is required on the fingerprint cardhasbeen provided and is legible. Incomplete cards willnot be processed and will be mailed back. All fingers need to be in the correct position and rolled. To avoid delays, ask the requestor of the background check or call Montana Criminal Records at (406) 444-3625 for assistance.
