13. Who is eligible to participate?

Children in Montana who may be eligible to participate:

- Children attending a school that offers the National School Lunch or School Breakfast Program, and your household income meets the requirements for free or reduced-price school meals, such as:
 - Students at non-Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) schools who have been approved as eligible for free or reduced-price school meals through direct certification or an approved Free or Reduced-price meal Application
 - Students attending a CEP school and have an approved SUN Bucks application.

- Children who are compulsory-aged (7-15 years old) and participated in eligible programs like SNAP or TANF during the eligibility period.

14. Do all children in CEP schools automatically qualify for SUN Bucks?

No, children in CEP schools must be income eligible and their caregiver must submit a complete SUN Bucks application to qualify for SUN Bucks, unless they are ages 7-15 and determined automatically eligible through participation in programs such as SNAP or TANF during the eligibility period.

15. Which children qualify automatically?

Children who are directly certified for free and reduced-price school meals due to participating eligible programs such as SNAP, TANF, FDPIR, or income-eligible and participating in Medicaid; or are directly certified for free and reduced-price meals from having foster, migrant, or homeless/runaway status. Children automatically qualify if they are in a SNAP or TANF household unit and are between the ages of 7-15 years old during the period of eligibility (July 1 of the previous year through August 31 of the following summer)

16. What is direct certification?

Direct certification is a process conducted by states and schools to certify eligible children for free meals without the need for household applications.

17. How can children qualify for SUN Bucks who are not directly certified for free and reduced-meals?

Children who are not already directly certified for free and reduced-price meals may apply using a free or reduced-price meal application to be eligible for both free or reduced-price meals and SUN Bucks if approved. In order to issue SUN Bucks benefits to households through this method, schools must report approved free and reduced-price meal application information to DPHHS. Households may apply using a SUN Bucks application if they wish to only participate in SUN Bucks. Families must meet the federal income eligibility guidelines to qualify based on household size and income.

18. My child receives free meals at school based on a submitted application. Do I need to apply to receive SUN Bucks benefits?

No, the application for school meals eligibility will be used to distribute SUN Bucks benefits if this information is provided to the state agency for benefit issuance. Households are welcome to contact SUNBucks@mt.gov to confirm their eligibility status.

19. What other resources are available for meals over the summer?

The SUN Meals and SUN Meals To Go may be offering free meals over the summer for kids at a site near you. To find the nearest site to your location, please visit <https://www.fns.usda.gov/meals4kids> or text 'Summer Meals' to 914-342-7744.

20. How can I opt out if I don't want to receive SUN Bucks benefits?

Families can opt out by emailing SUNBucks@mt.gov ; or calling 406-444-0044. If you receive a card you do not wish to use, you may opt out by cutting through the magnetic strip on the card and disposing of the card in a secure manner.

21. Will applications for SUN Bucks be subject to verification?

Yes, states are required to comply with SUN Bucks federal verification rules per 7 CFR 292.14.

22. What is the timeframe for submitting applications and application processing?

Applications can be submitted by families at any time during the year and they will be processed by the state within 15 business days.

23. What should families do if they received a duplicate benefit, or received benefits in error?

Do not spend any benefits received in error. If you are issued benefits for the same child from multiple States or Indian Tribal Organizations, you must only use the benefits from the State or Indian Tribal Organization where the child had completed the school year just prior to receiving benefits. Under no circumstances may households use both benefits per 7 CFR 292.12(f)(4).

24. I have a question, which includes Personally Identifiable Information (sensitive) information about my child. How should I relay this information?

Questions may be received either by email or by phone. Any PII (personally identifiable information) should not be sent via unsecured methods; email is considered unsecured.

25. Retailers: How do I accept SUN Bucks benefits?

If you do not currently accept SNAP (which will also allow you to accept Summer EBT/ SUN Bucks), you may apply for FNS Retailer Certification to process EBT Transactions at the link:

[How Do I Apply to Accept Benefits? | Food and Nutrition Service \[fns.usda.gov\]](https://www.fns.usda.gov/apply)

If you currently accept SNAP transactions but are having issues with accepting Summer EBT/ SUN Bucks, please reach out to whomever maintains your POS (Point of Sale Terminal) equipment to have the new MT SEBT BIN 984000161 added. The TPPs have added the MT SEBT to the BIN file that needs to be applied to your POS system.

Note: if you have followed the steps above and added the new BIN and are still experiencing issues, please let us know.

26. Penalties for Misuse:

Intentional program violations include intentionally: 1) Making a false or misleading statement, or 2) misrepresenting, concealing or withholding facts; or committing any act that constitutes a violation of SUN Bucks (Summer EBT) regulations, or any State statute for the purpose of using, presenting, transferring, acquiring, receiving, possessing or trafficking of SUN Bucks benefits or EBT cards.
