

Stroke Storm Watch Radio Ad Script

Sound Effects: American Indian flute up and under softly

American Indian Man says: There is a dangerous storm we must watch for.

Sound Effects: Deep thunder rolls, crack of lightning and thunder

American Indian Man says: This storm is stroke.

American Indian Man says: If you notice these warning signs, call 9-1-1 immediately.

American Indian Man says:

Numbness of the face, arm or leg, especially on one side of the body

Loss of vision, speech or understanding

Trouble walking or dizziness

Sudden severe headache or confusion

American Indian Man says: Preserve our nation.

Sound Effects: Crack of lightning and thunder

American Indian Man says: Know the signs of a stroke and watch for the storm. You could save a life.

American Indian Man says: Brought to you by the Montana Department of Public Health and Human Services.