Policy Manual

Section: SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

Subject: Services to Members with Developmental Disabilities

Reference: 37.40.1005, 37.40.1111

PURPOSE

This policy outlines the scope of Community First Choice/Personal Assistance Services (CFC/PAS) that are provided to members with developmental disabilities.

PROCEDURE

1. CFC/PAS services are available to individuals with a developmental disability. A Personal Representative may be required for a member to choose the self-directed option. Authorized services must fit the functional and medical need for hands-on assistance. Services are not authorized or provided for the purpose of providing supervision, habilitation training, or check-in services.
2. State plan will not reimburse for supervision, respite, habilitation training or check-in services. Members who require these types of services should be referred to the Developmentally Disability Program.
3. No duplication of payment or services is allowed across the Developmental Disability Program and CFC/PAS.
4. CFC/PAS services must be provided in the member's home.
